(By Associated Press)
Austin, Texas, Aug. 29.—After a short session this morning the senate adjourned as a high court for the trial of Governor Ferguson until 10 o'clock tomorrow. It was decided to ask Chief Justice Phillips of the supreme court, now at Milford, to come to Austin for tomorrow's session to administer the oath.

SATURDAY LIVELY WITH THE POLICE OF COUNTY AND CITY

Saturday was a day so filled with excitement for the forces of law and order that they had no time to tell about it until today. The Eagle contained a brief report of the shooting on Main street of a negro by an Italian, Frank Tardio, who was arrested and made bond in the sum of $500 to appear for examining trial Thursday. The negro whom he shot was hit in the leg and is getting along nicely. The negro whom he was after, Guy Crawford, climbed a fence and got away, but while Crawford was doing a Marathon, Jodie Green, his wife, was arrested for shoplifting at the Coulter store.

Shortly after the shooting three or four Italians took after Essex Taylor and gave him a chase. Essex was picked up by Constable Baker, who took him onto his horse with him and put him in jail. The negro told his story to County Attorney Bethea to the effect that on the previous Saturday he passed a negro woman whom he knew and had always called her "Shine." He said, "Hello, Shine," and a young Italian took it up, insisted that he was being called Shine and would have it no other way. Essex, seeing he nor the woman could not convince him that he was in error, walked away and thought no more about it. But as he was walking along the street last Saturday he passed near Walton's and heard somebody say, "There he is," and at the same time somebody made a lunge at him with a knife. Then another knife was wielded and two others appeared on the scene with axes, but these Essex did not see, as he was following his nose very rapidly from that place. Others saw the chase and reported it to Mr. Bethea. Four or five Italians soon afterward appeared before Mr. Bethea and complained that the negro, on the previous Saturday, had a gun. He told them all to take the case to the grand jury, if they thought they had one, as Essex, being a good, law-abiding negro, would not leave the country, having a wife and several children and being a prized tenant on the Charles Lock farm.

Deputy Sheriff Morehead had an experience with an old negro, whom he arrested for being drunk. The old fellow had purchased several bottles of whiskey and had a quantity inside as well. He dropped bottles in several places and broke them, and wound up his career for the day by dropping two and breaking them in the waiting room at the Houston and Texas Central depot. When Mr. Morehead arrived there was whiskey over everything and he was trying to dip it back into the bottle with a pocket knife.

A white man was arrested during the day, suspected of being one of two charged with the murder of a man near Humble. Officers from Harris county came up but could not identify him. However, he is being held because he has no registration identification card.

Ed Luck, a boy of about sixteen, was arrested and lodged in jail for having gotten mail at the postoffice for a junk dealer and applying it to his own use.

PRESIDENT REJECTED POPE'S PEACE NOTE

Washington, Aug. 29.—President Wilson has rejected the pope's peace proposals.

In a note, dispatched Monday night and made public here Tuesday night, the president says that, while every heart, not blinded and hardened by the terrible war, must be touched by the moving appeal of his holiness, it would be folly to take the path of peace he points out, if it does not, in fact, lead to the goal he proposes.

To deal with such a power as the present rulers of Germany under Pope Benedict's plan, declares the president, would involve a recuperation of the strength and renewal of the world domination of that power, now balked, but not defeated, after sweeping a continent with the blood of innocent women and children and the helpless poor as well as of soldiers.

Permanent peace must be based upon the faith of all the peoples and upon justice and fairness and the common rights of mankind, he adds, and "we can not take the word of the present rulers of Germany as a guarantee of anything that is to endure, unless explicitly supported by such conclusive evidence of the will and purpose of the German people themselves as the other peoples of the world would be justified in accepting."

EAST-WEST HIGHWAY IS MAPPED THROUGH HERE BY COMMISSION

From Wednesday's Daily Eagle.
President Johnson of the Business club got into communication with the secretary of the state highway commission who told him the things necessary to do in order to present the matter of an east and west highway through this county with a view of having it given official designation. Mr. Johnson received also a map from the commission which shows the highway routes tentatively decided upon, and one of these passes east and west through this county, touching Bryan. It is called the Gonzales-San Augustine highway, which are the terminal points, but it passes through Giddings and Smithville on its way to Bryan, and out through Madison county and on to the northeast, crossing many other highways both to the east and west of us. At Giddings it crosses the Austin-Houston highway; at Smithville the San Marcos-Houston highway, and at Gonzales the San Antonio-Houston highway, which runs from Gonzales to Medina, where it separates, one road going to Del Rio and the other to Laredo. At San Augustine it connects with the north and south highway from Texarkana to Beaumont, and touches many other highways en route. So it becomes an important outlet for Bryan, and because of its many intersecting highways should bring a lot of travel through this city.

The secretary informed Mr. Johnson that the people should petition for the highway in regular form, and steps have been taken to do that very thing.

SENATE REJECTED TWO REGENTS APPOINTED BY GOV. FERGUSON

Austin, Texas, Aug. 29.—Tuesday afternoon the senate in executive session rejected John L. Ward of Temple and W. G. Love of Houston as university regents. George W. Brackenridge of San Antonio was confirmed as a regent of the university to succeed John M. Mathis of Brenham, resigned.

Messrs. Ward and Love were appointed by Mr. Ferguson, the former to succeed J. P. Tucker, resigned, and the latter to succeed Dr. George S. McReynolds, resigned. Major Brackenridge was named by Acting Governor Hobby Tuesday morning, being the first appointee of Mr. Ferguson's successor.

It was generally believed Tuesday night that Acting Governor Hobby will name two more university regents today to take the places of Messrs. Ward and Love. The senate Tuesday afternoon also confirmed the appointments of F. W. Weinert as state warehouse commissioner, Steve M. King as associate justice of the Ninth court of civil appeals, W. A. Patrick of Falls county to be judge of the Eighty-second judicial district, H. S. Moorehead of Robertson county to be judge of the Eighty-fifth judicial district, George E. Hosey of Tarrant county to be judge of the criminal district court of Tarrant county, Joel R. Bond of Kaufman county to be judge of the Eighty-sixth judicial district, Clifford Stone of Rusk county to be district attorney of the Fourth judicial district, Frank McKnight, Webb Rose, J. P. Fielder, James Ditto and Leslie Coulter to be members of the board of managers of the Grubbs vocational college, and Will P. Brady of El Paso county to be judge of the county court at law of El Paso county.

Two of the appointees of Mr. Ferguson made during recess and sent to the senate were not acted on Tuesday evening. These are Walter F. Timon of Nueces county to be judge of the criminal court of Nueces, Kleberg, Wilacy and Cameron counties, and I. T. Valentine of Tarrant county to be judge of the county court for civil cases in Tarrant county.

UNIVERSITY BILL PASSED. Austin, Texas, Aug. 29.—At 7 o'clock Tuesday evening the house passed finally the university appropriation bill. As passed it is identically the same as it was when sent to the house by the senate and now needs only the signature of Acting Governor Hobby to become a law. The bill carries $1,629,000.

The vote on final passage was 87 to 6, with four members present and not voting. Those voting against the measure were:

Bertram, Cox, Lindermann, Morris, Sholars and Thompson of Red River. Present and not voting:

Bagby, Baker, Florer and McFarland. During the afternoon the amendment offered which created the greatest stir was one by Bertram to provide that appropriations for the university or other state schools could not be used as long as there was a saloon within a radius of five miles.

O. P. Hall leaves tomorrow for Waco where he will be an adjuster for the Shear company. Mrs. Hall and the children will remain here until he can find a home in which to place them. R. W. Howell will take the place of Mr. Hall in the Howell Wholesale Grocery company, and become its manager. Mr. Hall has been here five years, and came from the Nacogdoches Grocery company at Timpson, coming here with the Gordon-Sewell company, which later sold to the Howell company. Mr. Hall has had the management of the store here and the business at Calvert, and is financially interested in the business which he still retains and will continue to hold the position of vice president.

Mr. Hall has made himself a place in the hearts of Bryan people and they regret his departure equally as great as he does to go. Counterfeit Americans

Time after time the Germans in this war have mistaken the people of other nations for fools, and have perpetrated such palpable frauds, told such palpable lies, done deeds of such palpable cruelty and then sought to back them up with arguments palpably false and upon palpably fraudulent bases, all done under the general supposition that the other peoples could not see through their thinly veiled tricks. Their acts have been those of boys who sought to deceive just commonly wise fathers and mothers. They have done things and said things designed to deceive, which did not deceive and only had the effect of counting them as premeditated liars. It has been easy in this country to run down their spies and to trace the coarse hand of the German propagandist wherever he may have been. Not always has the evidence been conclusive, while at other times it has. But when so many trails lead to the same destination and each trail is the counterpart of the other, one scarcely needs conclusive evidence to satisfy his mind that they were laid out and beaten down by the same corps of workers.

Senator La Follette has a French name, but he comes from a German state in which there is a large city made famous by a well known German beverage. The senator, having imbibed the sentiments of his people, whose racial sympathy is with the people of the fatherland whether or not they are loyal to this country, speaks with the mouth those sentiments that he is bound to voice as a representative of his people. The senator in his speech in support of his proposition to declare war taxes on the rich munitions makers and large incomes, declares that the war is not popular and that the draft is resisted by 85 per cent of those called. We know that while excuses have been many, it was expected that at least half of those called would be excused on legitimate grounds. The others who asked for exemption did so largely because it was a fad, sheep following the leader, not that they cared so much about avoiding the war as they did not know what it is all about and disliked being disturbed in their customary routine of life. They have been doing about the same thing year after year and it looks hard to them to break away and try new work. He also declared that the liberty loan was subscribed by the exercise of the iron fist in a kid glove, and doubtless referred to the fact that 4,000,000 people took bonds, a very large percentage of whom had never before saved a cent of their earnings and were in some measure coerced into doing so, to a considerable extent for the same reason that so many filed claims for exemption, sheep following the leader. It was a fad to subscribe for liberty bonds. The real seriousness of the situation has not penetrated the American mind, generally, as yet, and will not until the boys begin to come home with arms off and legs off and eyes out and picturing the horrors of war, for these are the only ones who are going to be permitted to come home until the war ends.

The senator said a good many other things that indicate where he imbibed his sentiments. There is nothing original in what he has said. The same talk has been going over the country ever since war was declared, and it is only occasionally that an un-American senator or congressman bobs up to indicate that some men of more than ordinary repute have the temerity to express themselves in this manner. Generally the propaganda work is done in a more insidious manner, as amongst the Industrial Workers of the World, or in the way told by Mary Roberts Rhinehart in the last number of the Saturday Evening Post:

After I had been traveling about the country for a few weeks I had come to a conclusion there was no getting away from: Germany is still trying quiet methods in this country. What her great army here will do when those methods fail I do not know. What it is doing now, as a part of its work, is to be heard and seen on almost every through train. Pleasant-faced gentlemen in smoking compartments, friendly ladies in dressing rooms and Pullman chairs, are busily instilling into the more or less receptive minds of a leisurely traveling public, distrust of our government. Do you recall that unctuous gentleman who said he was from New Orleans, but whose coat was marked Baltimore, who prefaced his remarks with the statement that he was a loyal American, but—

Have you not heard the old, old arguments—of capital forcing this war because it was afraid of the safety of its loans to the allies? Of Great Britain dragging us in because the British were lying down on their job? Of big interests who brought on our part of the war for the sake of contracts?

They have all the stock arguments, these German spies and propagandists, plus some new ones. But ask them their names and addresses and then, a trifle later, get out your notebook and write something down—it doesn't matter what. The names and addresses are not important, because they are false. But watch them stop talking, and observe them furtively scrutinizing you afterward.

I have had two women try this with me, and on one through train in the south I overheard, in the smoking compartment, one man holding forth to three different audiences. It is insidious poison, for it strikes generally at the good faith of our allies.

How does this affect our men in the training camps? I have known it to be tried in only one, but the result, with a different sort of men, might have been disastrous. From some hidden outside source it began to be impressed on these men that they were about to face an unbeatable machine. The same stealthy whispers said that the allies were already defeated and that we were to be sacrificed to save the men of France and Great Britain. It circulated figures, wildly exaggerated, as to the percentage of deaths among officers at the front.

Cruel? It was dastardly. As dastardly as it was totally false.

Luckily this was not the new army, made up, as it must be, of all elements, intelligent and stupid, loyal citizens and others not so loyal. But it is something to be watched for in the new army. These student officers, most of them, realized that the whole thing was fundamentally false. But it had a certain effect, for all that. Here and there one found them, toiling as bravely, working as faithfully, preparing with the others to do better than their best. But also—preparing to die.

I have been frank about this, at the risk of criticism, because something must be done about it. And that something we can do ourselves. Watch these unctuous people who magnify Germany's power and attack our allies. Watch the men and women who sneer at our own government and minimize our fighting strength. Watch the pleasant gentlemen who hate England and assure you we are fighting her war for her. They may be merely disgruntled Americans, but they are more likely to be something very different.

And—watch the foreign press. A part of it is loyal; a part of it most certainly is not. It is insidiously disloyal, like my friends of the through trains. If the government would make one very simple ruling we should have an easy solution of a perplexing problem, one that the loyal press would welcome. That is: Order each newspaper printed in a foreign language in this country to send one copy each day to the department of justice, there to be examined by men familiar with the languages in which they are printed. Unfair? Not at all. Our everyday press is subject to supervision. Why not these others?

Mrs. Rhinehart says something must be done about it. The La Follette, for one thing, should be suppressed by their own people, but in his case he, it is believed, speaks the sentiments of those who elected him, hence he will not be punished. As to the others an extensive spy system of our own with railway trainmen enlisted for that particular type of propagandists, would help a lot. And every man big enough can slap the jaws of those he hears delivering this kind of talk, doing it either literally or figuratively, as did State Press in the Galveston News a day or so ago:

A Galveston reader, who uses a blue pencil and considerable asperity in his writing, forwards the suggestion that probably State Press is crazy with the heat. The complainant does not like S. P.'s position as regards the war and the warring peoples. Of course, the Americanism of State Press is offensive to a certain element of the Texas population which splits its patriotism on the fifty-fifty basis, as does our Galveston correspondent—who signs his name "Pro-American" to conceal his real leanings. Possibly, however, State Press is crazy with the heat. But he isn't lunatic enough not to be able to detect a counterfeit American when the counterfeit emits hatred of this country's laws and institutions. State Press is for the United States, and against everybody who isn't for the United States. If there are any readers of this column who don't like it, they can lump it.

WHAT EAGLE FILES TELL OF OTHER DAYS

(Twenty Years Ago.)

Mr. and Mrs. George Jenkins, Jr., accompanied by their mother, and Mrs. Tom Hillier and Miss Kate Seale, left yesterday for Europe, where they will spend several months in extensive touring of the continent and visiting the parents and friends of Mrs. George Jenkins, London. Mr. Jenkins will develop extensive knowledge of architecture while abroad and Miss Seale will pursue the study of art. They go to Galveston, thence to New York via the Mallory steamer Alamo, and afterwards to London on the great St. Paul.

Mr. Zulch has purchased of E. J. Fountain the two story corner building occupied by Saunders & Johnson; consideration, $7000. The building sold four months ago for $6,000, which shows how rapidly Bryan property is advancing, and leaves no doubt that we are rapidly securing investments from some of the best and ablest men in this section.

Calvert now has seven churches, five lawyers, six doctors, two dentists and twelve saloons. We do not know what sort of an average this is, but suppose it is on the dead level, as a more orderly, decorous and benevolent community exists nowhere else on earth.—Courier.

The agitation at Bryan of the question of abolishing the city government has set other towns agog, and symptoms of a similar attack of moss-backism are developing at Hearne. It is hoped that the people of Hearne before taking this backward step, will consider very carefully the evils sure to result from such a course.—Hearne Advocate.

Mr. J. Allen Myers has returned from Austin and says the newspapers have in no way exaggerated the big row in the republican state convention. In fact, he says, the reporters did not have time to paint it up in its true colors because they were run over themselves. He and other conservatives very properly retired when bedlam began to reign, and we congratulate them on their good sense and judgment.

About 1000 delegates besides many visitors attended the Baptist State Sunday School convention at San Antonio. Mr. W. S. Howell of Bryan was elected recording secretary of the convention over Rev. T. A. Moore. Mr. Howell is one of the most active Sunday school workers in the state and probably has one of the most flourishing Sunday schools in the state.

Miss Willie Friley and music class gave a splendid performance of the operetta, "Little Red Riding Hood," at the opera house last night. The music was excellent and gave evidence of the most careful training. Miss Friley is not only an accomplished musician herself, but possesses the tact and ability of imparting instruction in a remarkable degree.

The ladies of the Methodist church are arranging for a baby show, ages of children to run from 1 to 4 years. Ladies of any denomination will have the privilege of bringing their babies. Four prizes will be given on conditions to be specified later. Mrs. Ed Hall will be glad to receive the names of all babies between the ages of four months and four years, to enter the contest for the prizes at baby show. There will be no special invitations—all are wanted. The ladies hope to add more prizes to the list already published.

The cocking main mentioned last week was "pulled off" on schedule time. Dr. Tom Erwin and Tom Ewing, from Brazos bottoms, pitted eight chickens against eight belonging to John B. Mike and Charley Knoblauch. The bottoms chickens won four fights and the town chickens three. The remaining one was called a draw. Six chickens were killed. Those who witnessed the fights say the fowls were very game and the contests spirited.

Messrs. Robert Armstrong and M. Nagle have formed a partnership for the practice of law, and will office in the Talliaferro building. They have a new card in this issue. Both young men have won a high place in the esteem of the people of Bryan and Brazos county, both have been close students in their profession, and we feel assured they will attain great success. They have the hearty recommendation and best wishes of The Eagle.

Uncle Abe Hensarling was here Saturday, and informed us that we were slightly in error regarding the accidental shooting of the young man, Charley Sawyer, Saturday in the Steep Hollow neighborhood. Only one bone of his forearm was broken, and amputation was unnecessary.

Father Petillo, the new Italian priest, celebrated mass Sunday at St. Joseph's church. The Italians held a meeting at their lodge room Sunday afternoon and determined to build another Catholic church in Bryan as soon as possible. About $1,200 has already been subscribed for that purpose.

Tyler Haswell has returned from St. Louis wearing a broad McKinley smile. The Eagle is indebted to Mr. Haswell for courtesies extended during his absence.

The children's service at the Baptist church Sunday morning was a grand success. The church was too small to accommodate the immense crowd. A collection of $50 for missions was taken at the service.

Philip Hensarling, a young man 19 years old, who resides with his father at Steep Hollow, was kicked on the leg by a mule a few days ago, and has since been dangerously ill, suffering from an attack of lock-jaw.

Services were held at the jail last Sunday by Mr. Jenkins of Georgia. Dr. Friley and Mr. H. O. Boatwright were present. There were seven prisoners in the jail, four white and three colored. We are informed by Mr. John Gee that Rev. G. E. Clothier will conduct services there this afternoon at 3.

A number of the Bryan young men have formed a club and rented the upper story of the Academy of Music for twelve months. The stage in the rear is being removed and the building, which will be known hereafter as the D. Y. K. hall, is being put in first-class shape for dancing.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Ed S. Derder and Miss Alma Sheets on Wednesday evening, April 29, 1896, at 9 o'clock, at residence, Bryan, Texas.

Bryan is after Huntsville's trade with a sharp stick. The progressive business men of that city advertise liberally at all seasons and are now figuring on a telephone line and macadamized road from Bryan to Madison and adjoining counties.—Huntsville Enterprise.

John M. Lawrence & Co. shipped 100 cases of soda water to Hempstead one day this week. The firm is enjoying a splendid business this season, better than ever before, and we are gratified to see a home manufacturing enterprise so much encouraged.

Fritz Easman, whose foot was mangled off some time ago by an excursion train on the Central, and who has since been in the railroad hospital at Houston, returned to Bryan a few days ago, and is able to get about with crutches. The injured limb was amputated just above the ankle, and when healed, a cork foot will enable Fritz to get along almost as well as ever.

The ladies of the Methodist church will entertain at the residence of Mrs. Calhoun Friday from 4 to 10 p. m. Tea, strawberries and cream, cake and other delicacies will be served at a reasonable price for the benefit of the church. The hours named are suitable for the attendance of both old and young people.

Milton Sims carried off the honors of all round athlete, at the Randolph-Macon college, Bedford City, Va., on field day, just before leaving for his Texas home, making 45 out of a possible 54 points in nine entries.

When War Was Decided Upon

Many of those whose sympathies were with Germany and Austria-Hungary in the war were not aware that at a secret meeting of the officials of both nations, Germany dominating, war was decided upon and the course of the central powers was marked out eighteen days before the ultimatum was sent to Serbia. This fact became known through discussion of it in the reichstag when a socialist member challenged one of the ministers to deny it. It was not denied then, but later a denial was published, purporting to be from official source. The facts as stated in the discussion have been investigated and were found to be true. The conference was held, those present being:

The kaiser,
Herr von Bethmann-Hollweg (chancellor),
Admiral von Tirpitz (minister of marine),
General von Falkenhayn (minister of war),
Herr von Stumm (head of the political department of the German foreign office),
The Archduke Frederick (cousin of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, who took command of the Austrian forces at the outbreak of war),
Count Berchtold (Austro-Hungarian foreign secretary),
Count Tisza (Hungarian premier), and
General Conrad von Hotzendorf,

(chief of the Austro-Hungarian general staff).

It appears that Herr von Jagow and Count Moltke were not present.

This conference took place at Potsdam July 5, 1914, and the ultimatum to be sent to Serbia by Austria was agreed upon. It was sent to Serbia July 23. It was expected that Russia would refuse to stand for the humiliation involved in the action of Austria and that war would follow, but it was believed at that time that Great Britain would not join in hostilities and that only France and Russia would have to be contended with. In order to deceive these two governments the kaiser departed at once for Norway and was called to Berlin when it was ascertained that England would stand by her allies. The attitude of the British government was firm as to its intention to keep faith with Russia and France, but at the same time strenuous efforts were made to bring about a settlement by arbitration of the Austria-Serbia difficulty. Appeals were made to Germany, but in vain, and the war was precipitated as had been planned it would at that Potsdam meeting.

The pretense that the war was thrust upon Germany rested upon a very flimsy pretext before this secret conference was exposed and the facts

now known to the world convicts the Prussian war lords of the crime of plotting the cruellest and most indefensible conflict that the world has ever known.—Waco Times-Herald.

These student officers, most of them, realized that the whole thing was fundamentally false. But it had a certain effect, for all that. Here and there one found them, toiling as bravely, working as faithfully, preparing with the others to do better than their best. But also—preparing to die.

I have been frank about this, at the risk of criticism, because something must be done about it. And that something we can do ourselves. Watch these unctuous people who magnify Germany's power and attack our allies. Watch the men and women who sneer at our own government and minimize our fighting strength. Watch the pleasant gentlemen who hate England and assure you we are fighting her war for her. They may be merely disgruntled Americans, but they are more likely to be something very different.

And—watch the foreign press. A part of it is loyal; a part of it most certainly is not. It is insidiously disloyal, like my friends of the through trains. If the government would make one very simple ruling we should have an easy solution of a perplexing problem, one that the loyal press would welcome. That is: Order each newspaper printed in a foreign language in this country to send one copy each day to the department of justice, there to be examined by men familiar with the languages in which they are printed. Unfair? Not at all. Our everyday press is subject to supervision. Why not these others?

Mrs. Rhinehart says something must be done about it. The La Follettes, for one thing, should be suppressed by their own people, but in his case he, it is believed, speaks the sentiments of those who elected him, hence he will not be punished. As to the others an extensive spy system of our own with railway trainmen enlisted for that particular type of propagandists, would help a lot. And every man big enough can slap the jaws of those he hears delivering this kind of talk, doing it either literally or figuratively, as did State Press in the Galveston News a day or so ago:

A Galveston reader, who uses a blue pencil and considerable asperity in his writing, forwards the suggestion that probably State Press is crazy with the heat. The complainant does not like S. P.'s position as regards the war and the warring peoples. Of course, the Americanism of State Press is offensive to a certain element of the Texas population which splits its patriotism on the fifty-fifty basis, as does our Galveston correspondent—who signs his name "Pro-American" to conceal his real leanings. Possibly, however, State Press is crazy with the heat. But he isn't lunatic enough not to be able to detect a counterfeit American when the counterfeit emits hatred of this country's laws and institutions. State Press is for the United States, and against everybody who isn't for the United States. If there are any readers of this column who don't like it, they can lump it.

WHAT EAGLE FILES TELL OF OTHER DAYS

(Twenty Years Ago.)

Mr. and Mrs. George Jenkins, Jr., accompanied by their mother, and Mrs. Tom Hillier and Miss Kate Seale, left yesterday for Europe, where they will spend several months in extensive touring of the continent and visiting the parents and friends of Mrs. George Jenkins, London. Mr. Jenkins will develop extensive knowledge of architecture while abroad and Miss Seale will pursue the study of art. They go to Galveston, thence to New York via the Mallory steamer Alamo, and afterwards to London on the great St. Paul.

Mr. Zulch has purchased of E. J. Fountain the two story corner building occupied by Saunders & Johnson; consideration, $7000. The building sold four months ago for $6,000, which shows how rapidly Bryan property is advancing, and leaves no doubt that we are rapidly securing investments from some of the best and ablest men in this section.

Calvert now has seven churches, five lawyers, six doctors, two dentists and twelve saloons. We do not know what sort of an average this is, but suppose it is on the dead level, as a more orderly, decorous and benevolent community exists no where else on earth.—Courier.

The agitation at Bryan of the question of abolishing the city government has set other towns agog, and symptoms of a similar attack of moss-backism are developing at Hearne. It is hoped that the people of Hearne before taking this backward step, will consider very carefully the evils sure to result from such a course.—Hearne Advocate.

Mr. J. Allen Myers has returned from Austin and says the newspapers have in no way exaggerated the big row in the republican state convention. In fact, he says, the reporters did not have time to paint it up in its true colors because they were run over themselves. He and other conservatives very properly retired when bedlam began to reign, and we congratulate them on their good sense and judgment.

About 1000 delegates besides many visitors attended the Baptist State Sunday School convention at San Antonio. Mr. W. S. Howell of Bryan was elected recording secretary of the convention over Rev. T. A. Moore. Mr. Howell is one of the most active Sunday school workers in the state and probably has one of the most flourishing Sunday schools in the state.

Miss Willie Friley and music class gave a splendid performance of the operetta, Little Red Riding Hood, at the opera house last night. The music was excellent and gave evidence of the most careful training. Miss Friley is not only an accomplished musician herself, but possesses the tact and ability of imparting instruction in a remarkable degree.

The ladies of the Methodist church are arranging for a baby show, ages of children to run from 1 to 4 years. Ladies of any denomination will have the privilege of bringing their babies. Four prizes will be given on conditions to be specified later. Mrs. Ed Hall will be glad to receive the names of all babies between the ages of four months and four years, to enter the contest for the prizes at baby show. There will be no special invitations—all are wanted. The ladies hope to add more prizes to the list already published.

The cocking main mentioned last week was "pulled off" on schedule time. Dr. Tom Erwin and Tom Ewing, from Brazos bottoms, pitted eight chickens against eight belonging to John B. Mike and Charley Knoblauch. The bottoms chickens won four fights and the town chickens three. The remaining one was called a draw. Six chickens were killed. Those who witnessed the fights say the fowls were very game and the contests spirited.

Messrs. Robert Armstrong and M. Nagle have formed a partnership for the practice of law, and will office in the Talliaferro building. They have a new card in this issue. Both young men have won a high place in the esteem of the people of Bryan and Brazos county, both have been close students in their profession, and we feel assured they will attain great success. They have the hearty recommendation and best wishes of The Eagle.

Uncle Abe Hensarling was here Saturday, and informed us that we were slightly in error regarding the accidental shooting of the young man, Charley Sawyer, Saturday in the Steep Hollow neighborhood. Only one bone of his forearm was broken, and amputation was unnecessary.

Father Pettilo, the new Italian priest, celebrated mass Sunday at St. Joseph's church. The Italians held a meeting at their lodge room Sunday afternoon and determined to build another Catholic church in Bryan as soon as possible. About $1,200 has already been subscribed for that purpose.

Tyler Haswell has returned from St. Louis wearing a broad McKinley smile. The Eagle is indebted to Mr. Haswell for courtesies extended during his absence.

The children's service at the Baptist church Sunday morning was a grand success. The church was too small to accommodate the immense crowd. A collection of $50 for missions was taken at the service.

Phillip Hensarling, a young man 19 years old, who resides with his father at Steep Hollow, was kicked on the leg by a mule a few days ago, and has since been dangerously ill, suffering from an attack of lock-jaw.

Services were held at the jail last Sunday by Mr. Jenkins of Georgia. Dr. Friley and Mr. H. O. Boatwright were present. There were seven prisoners in the jail, four white and three colored. We are informed by Mr. John Gee that Rev. G. E. Clothier will conduct services there this afternoon at 3.

A number of the Bryan young men have formed a club and rented the upper story of the Academy of Music for twelve months. The stage in the rear is being removed and the building, which will be known hereafter as the D. Y. K. hall, is being put in first-class shape for dancing.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Ed S. Derder and Miss Alma Sheets on Wednesday evening, April 29, 1896, at 9 o'clock, at residence, Bryan, Texas.

Bryan is after Huntsville's trade with a sharp stick. The progressive business men of that city advertise liberally at all seasons and are now figuring on a telephone line and macadamized road from Bryan to Madison and adjoining counties.—Huntsville Enterprise.

John M. Lawrence & Co. shipped 100 cases of soda water to Hempstead one day this week. The firm is enjoying a splendid business this season, better than ever before, and we are gratified to see a home manufacturing enterprise so much encouraged.

Fritz Easman, whose foot was mangled off some time ago by an excursion train on the Central, and who has since been in the railroad hospital at Houston, returned to Bryan a few days ago, and is able to get about with crutches. The injured limb was amputated just above the ankle, and when healed, a cork foot will enable Fritz to get along almost as well as ever.

The ladies of the Methodist church will entertain at the residence of Mrs. Calhoun Friday from 4 to 10 p. m. Tea, strawberries and cream, cake and other delicacies will be served at a reasonable price for the benefit of the church. The hours named are suitable for the attendance of both old and young people.

Milton Sims carried off the honors of all round athlete, at the Randolph-Macon college, Bedford City, Va., on field day, just before leaving for his Texas home, making 45 out of a possible 54 points in nine entries.

When War Was Decided Upon

Many of those whose sympathies were with Germany and Austria-Hungary in the war were not aware that at a secret meeting of the officials of both nations, Germany dominating, war was decided upon and the course of the central powers was marked out eighteen days before the ultimatum was sent to Serbia. This fact became known through discussion of it in the reichstag when a socialist member challenged one of the ministers to deny it. It was not denied then, but later a denial was published, purporting to be from official source. The facts as stated in the discussion have been investigated and were found to be true. The conference was held, those present being:

The Kaiser,
Herr von Bethmann-Hollweg (chancellor),
Admiral von Tirpitz (minister of marine),
General von Falkenhayn (minister of war),
Her von Stumm (head of the political department of the German foreign office),
The Archduke Frederick (cousin of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, who took command of the Austrian forces at the outbreak of war),
Count Berchtold (Austro-Hungarian foreign secretary),
Count Tisza (Hungarian premier), and
General Conrad von Hotzendorf,

(chief of the Austro-Hungarian general staff).

It appears that Herr von Jagow and Count Molke were not present.

This conference took place at Potsdam July 5, 1914, and the ultimatum to be sent to Serbia, by Austria was agreed upon. It was sent to Serbia July 23. It was expected that Russia would refuse to stand for the humiliation involved in the action of Austria and that war would follow, but it was believed at that time that Great Britain would not join in hostilities and that only France and Russia would have to be contended with. In order to deceive these two governments the Kaiser departed at once for Norway and was called to Berlin when it was ascertained that England would stand by her allies. The attitude of the British government was firm as to its intention to keep faith with Russia and France, but at the same time strenuous efforts were made to bring about a settlement by arbitration of the Austria-Serbia difficulty. Appeals were made to Germany, but in vain, and the war was precipitated as had been planned it would at that Potsdam meeting.

The pretense that the war was thrust upon Germany rested upon a very flimsy pretext before this secret conference was exposed and the facts

now known to the world convicts the Prussian war lords of the crime of plotting the cruellest and most indefensible conflict that the world has ever known.—Waco Times-Herald.

EIGHTY EXAMINED FOR ARMY SERVICE AND ONE REJECTED

From Tuesday's Daily Eagle
Up to noon today the local exemption board has physically examined about 80 of the 150 called. Of these 40 were examined Monday and the other 40 this morning. Tomorrow will be the last day on which any of the 150 will be called. Of the 80 examined only one has been rejected on account of physical defects. As usual, most of the others have taken blanks upon which to apply for exemption, and with some of these it is more as a matter of form than anything else, as their talks indicate that they have not legitimate excuses.

No word has come from the district board as to what it has done with the men whom the county board tendered. It was known last week that the district board was working on the lists, but the time for calling the first 5 per cent of the accepted men is getting short, and as these are to be men who have had previous military experience, as far as it is possible to select such men, the local board would like to have a little time in which to pick them out from the registration cards, as will be necessary.

The provost marshal general has sent the following to the governors of all states:

The following ruling of the surgeon general is published for the information of local boards:

The rules governing the matter of flat foot for men subject to the selective draft are fully set forth under the heading, "Lower extremities," paragraph 3 of the regulations governing physical examinations. In this paragraph it is specifically set forth that a broad, flat sole is common in laboring classes, particularly among negroes, and it is in no way disabling.

In this connection attention is invited to paragraph 4 of the regulations. It would seem, if the provisions of this paragraph are closely observed, that there would be no necessity for asking many of the questions now sent in by members of the local boards. This paragraph is as follows:

"Any of the physical deficiencies mentioned above must be present in such degree as to clearly and unmistakably disqualify the man for military service before he can be found to be physically deficient and not physically disqualified for military service."

When you yawn a good deal in the daytime, feel dull, achey and want to stretch frequently, it is an unmistakable symptom of malaria, and unless you do something at once you are booked for a spell of chills. HERBINE is a chill medicine that will prevent or cure the disease. It drives out the impurities on which the malarial germ thrives, strengthens the liver and cleanses the bowels. Price 50c. $5,000,000 Needed for Drouth Stricken

(By Associated Press)
Austin, Texas, Aug. 27.—Approximately $5,000,000 will be needed to effectively relieve the drouth-stricken farmers of the western portion of Texas, according to State Senator Scott Woodward of Erath county, chairman of the senate committee on agriculture. Some kind of legislation is expected to be enacted during the present session.

MEN OF MILITARY TRAINING WANTED FIRST IN THE ARMY

From Monday's Daily Eagle
The Brazos county exemption board is putting through the mill today the first fifty of the one hundred and fifty men called for examination. The examiners had made excellent progress up to noon, the majority of the men having appeared. Most of them took away blanks for applications for exemption.

President Arrington has received instructions from the war department to choose from among those accepted for service men who have had military service as the first 5 per cent who will be sent to the cantonments. While the purpose is not revealed in the instructions it is easily surmised that these men are to be given training for non-commissioned officers, and if found worthy, will doubtless be appointed. The second consignment of men will be made on September 15. The first is to report to President Arrington September 5, and he will provide them with railroad transportation and meal tickets, which he has already received and placed in the bank for safe keeping.

HAS RECOVERED HER HEALTH.

So many women suffer from similar afflictions that this testimonial from Mrs. Laura Beall, Plattsburg, Miss., will be read with interest: "I got in bad health. My left side hurt all the time. I took doctor's medicine, but it did me no good. I took two bottles of Foley Kidney Pills and feel all right now." M. H. James.

VITAL STATISTICS ARE BEING REPORTED

From Monday's Daily Eagle
The new vital statistics law with penalties attached for failure to make reports, seems to be arousing physicians and others who are thereunder required to turn in certificates of deaths and births to the county clerk. The following birth certificates have been filed in the past few days with County Clerk Ferguson:

March 23—To Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Henry, Bryan, boy.

Several certificates of deaths occurring in the past three months have just been filed.

FEEL WORSE AFTER VACATION
The change from outdoor activity of vacation time to the quiet of regular employment sometimes makes one feel heavy and "stuffed up," uncomfortable and bilious, with a mean headache and coated tongue. Foley Cathartic Tablets give prompt relief from these results of indigestion. Mild and gentle, but sure. M. H. James.

Fighting Man Risks Are Light in War
Washington, Aug. 24.—That the risk of the fighting man is not nearly so great as is popularly imagined is the belief of marine corps officials here who have compiled statistics covering the allied losses in the war.

A careful estimate shows that only one man in fifteen is killed, and one out of five hundred loses a limb. Recent reports from French and British hospitals show that about 95 per cent recover from wounds, while about 90 per cent are able to return to the firing line.

While the marine corps officials hold unbiased views in regard to the expected casualties among their own troops in France, it is pointed out that the "Soldiers of the Sea" recently engaged in warfare in Haiti, suffered less than 1 per cent losses. These were sustained while covering a wide terrain, fighting from house to house, and capturing and holding small redoubts, taken one by one from the enemy. This method of warfare is said to be rapidly superseding the trench system on the western front.

Surgeons agree that in cases of cuts, burns, bruises and wounds, the first treatment is most important. When an efficient antiseptic is applied promptly, there is no danger of infection and the wound begins to heal at once. For use on man or beast, BORZONE is the ideal antiseptic and healing agent. Buy it now and be ready for an emergency. Price 25c, 50c, $1.00 and $1.50. Sold by E. J. Jenkins.

MARK PHILLIPS WAS BURIED AT MILLICAN

From Monday's Daily Eagle
Mark Phillips, who was killed in Waco Friday morning, was buried at Millican Sunday, the home of his wife and her people. The funeral was very largely attended and the sermon was preached by Rev. Massey of Navasota, who paid the young man a fine tribute. He was a most exemplary young man, having no habits of drinking, smoking or anything of that sort; upright, thorough, honest and capable and straightforward.

Mr. Phillips formerly worked at Navasota and there he carried with him the reputation he bore everywhere. He was for a time employed here as tinner for the Cole Hardware company and later went into the employ of the Waco Ice company. While so employed he was caught between cars and so badly crushed that he died in a few hours. His wife was at Millican and she went to Waco with her brothers and took the remains back to Millican. His parents reside in McLennan county and met her in Waco.

He was about 32 or 33 years of age and leaves no children. His wife was a Miss Johnson of Millican.

PROF. HAYDEN'S FATHER DEAD.
From Monday's Daily Eagle
The Rev. Horace Edwin Hayden, A. M., father of Professor Hayden of the A. and M. college, passed away at his home in Wilkes Barre, Penn., on August 22. Since 1879 he had been connected with St. Stephen's parish, Wilkes Barre, and for the past twenty-five years had been corresponding secretary and librarian of the Wyoming Valley Historical and Geological society. He is survived by his wife, formerly, Miss Kate E. Byers, of Hancock, Md., and by his son, Horace Edwin Hayden, Jr., of College Station, Texas.

FUNERAL THURSDAY OF MRS. ELLEN WITHERS

From Thursday's Daily Eagle
Mrs. Ellen Withers, who died last evening at 3:35 o'clock, will be buried from the First Baptist church this afternoon, the service being conducted by Dr. M. E. Weaver.

Mrs. Withers was Miss Ellen Deckman, and was born in Halifax, Nova Scotia, November 10, 1832. She came to Texas to meet her brother, A. M. Deckman, in 1832, landing at Galveston. From there she went by prairie schooner to San Antonio, and from there to Fort Belknap, where she joined her brother. She and her brother remained there three years, during which time she met Mr. W. B. Withers, and they were married there in 1854. She and her husband moved to Houston after their marriage and remained there until 1868, and from there to Bryan, which was then the terminus of the Houston and Texas Central railway. The remainder of her life was spent here with the exception of two years. Two children were born to them, both boys, W. B. Jr., now deceased, and W. A., with whom she was living at the time of her death. Her husband died in 1872. W. B. Jr., died in 1882, without having married. Surviving her are two children of her son, W. A.

She joined the Baptist church before coming to the states and had always been an active member and a consistent one in every particular, living the life of Christ as she saw and understood it.

The pallbearers are as follows: Honorary—J. A. Myers, R. S. Webb, Sr., T. R. Batte, M. H. James, H. O. Boatwright, J. L. Fountain.

Active—W. C. Davis, J. Webb Howell, H. H. Newton, J. I. Barron, C. A. Harris, John A. Moore.

HE FELT LIKE NINETY
Nothing makes a person feel old quicker than disordered kidneys. They cause aches and pains all over the body. A. W. Morgan, Angola, La., writes: "Oh, I suffered with pain in my back. I am 43 years old, but I felt like a man 90 years old. Since I took Foley Kidney Pills I feel like I did when I was 21." M. H. James.

It is expected that returns to the county board will be made in a few days.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES MEET TO DISCUSS PROBLEMS

From Monday's Daily Eagle
Trustees of the county school districts are meeting with County Superintendent Powers and the county educational board in the district court room today, and discussing problems of interest to the schools of the county. This morning "Millionaire" Graffton, who has charge of the big rural school fund in the office of the state superintendent, was here and delivered an address on that subject, explaining the operations of the law.

This afternoon H. L. McKnight addressed the assemblage on the compulsory education law of the state.

MILITARY TRIAL FOR BLACKS.
Washington, Aug. 28.—An official report to Secretary Baker Monday said that the situation at Houston was normal, and that the investigation of the rioting of the negro troops last week by army officers was proceeding rapidly.

Indications are that soldiers found to have been involved in the outbreak will be tried by a military court. Secretary Baker would not express himself on this point, however, pending a full report of the occurrence and the recommendations of Major General Parker, commanding the southern department.

Mr. Baker also refused to make any statement as to the future policy of the war department toward sending colored regiments into Texas or other southern states for training.

EIGHTY EXAMINED FOR ARMY SERVICE AND ONE REJECTED

From Tuesday's Daily Eagle
Up to noon today the local exemption board has physically examined about 80 of the 150 called. Of these 40 were examined Monday and the other 40 this morning. Tomorrow will be the last day on which any of the 150 will be called. Of the 80 examined only one has been rejected on account of physical defects. As usual, most of the others have taken blanks upon which to apply for exemption, and with some of these it is more as a matter of form than anything else, as their talks indicate that they have not legitimate excuses.

No word has come from the district board as to what it has done with the men whom the county board tendered. It was known last week that the district board was working on the lists, but the time for calling the first 5 per cent of the accepted men is getting short, and as these are to be men who have had previous military experience, as far as it is possible to select such men, the local board would like to have a little time in which to pick them out from the registration cards, as will be necessary.

The provost marshal general has sent the following to the governors of all states:

The following ruling of the surgeon general is published for the information of local boards:

The rules governing the matter of flat foot for men subject to the selective draft are fully set forth under the heading, "Lower extremities," paragraph 3 of the regulations governing physical examinations. In this paragraph it is specifically set forth that a broad, flat sole is common in laboring classes, particularly among negroes, and it is in no way disabling.

In this connection attention is invited to paragraph 4 of the regulations. It would seem, if the provisions of this paragraph are closely observed, that there would be no necessity for asking many of the questions now sent in by members of the local boards. This paragraph is as follows:

"Any of the physical deficiencies mentioned above must be present in such degree as to clearly and unmistakably disqualify the man for military service before he can be found to be physically deficient and not physically disqualified for military service."

When you yawn a good deal in the daytime, feel dull, aches and want to stretch frequently, it is an unmistakable symptom of malaria, and unless you do something at once you are booked for a spell of chills. HERBINE is a chill medicine that will prevent or cure the disease. It drives out the impurities on which the malarial germ thrives, strengthens the liver and cleanses the bowels. Price 50c. Sold by E. J. Jenkins.

$5,000,000 Needed for Drouth Stricken

(By Associated Press)
Austin, Texas, Aug. 27.—Approximately $5,000,000 will be needed to defray the cost of the drouth-stricken farmers of the western portion of Texas, according to State Senator Scott Woodward of Erath county, chairman of the senate committee on agriculture. Some kind of legislation is expected to be enacted during the present session.

MEN OF MILITARY TRAINING WANTED FIRST IN THE ARMY

From Monday's Daily Eagle
The Brazos county exemption board is putting through the mill today the first fifty of the one hundred and fifty men called for examination. The examiners had made excellent progress up to noon, the majority of the men having appeared. Most of them took away blanks for applications for exemption.

President Arrington has received instructions from the war department to choose from among those accepted for service men who have had military service as the first 5 per cent who will be sent to the cantonments. While the purpose is not revealed in the instructions it is easily surmised that these men are to be given training for non-commissioned officers, and, if found worthy, will doubtless be appointed. The second consignment of men will be made on September 15. The first is to report to President Arrington September 5, and he will provide them with railroad transportation and meal tickets, which he has already received and placed in the bank for safe keeping.

Fighting Man Risks Are Light in War

Washington, Aug. 24.—That the risk of the fighting man is not nearly so great as is popularly imagined is the belief of marine corps officials here who have compiled statistics covering the allied losses in the war.

A careful estimate shows that only one man in fifteen is killed, and one out of five hundred loses a limb. Recent reports from French and British hospitals show that about 95 per cent recover from wounds, while about 90 per cent are able to return to the firing line.

While the marine corps officials hold unbiased views in regard to the expected casualties among their own troops in France, it is pointed out that the "Soldiers of the Sea" recently engaged in warfare in Haiti, suffered less than 1 per cent losses. These were sustained while covering a wide terrain, fighting from house to house, and capturing and holding small redoubts, taken one by one from the enemy. This method of warfare is said to be rapidly superseding the trench system on the western front.

Surgeons agree that in cases of cuts, burns, bruises and wounds, the first treatment is most important. When an efficient antiseptic is applied promptly, there is no danger of infection and the wound begins to heal at once. For use on man or beast, BOROZONE is the ideal antiseptic and healing agent. MARK PHILLIPS WAS BURIED AT MILLICAN

Mark Phillips, who was killed in Waco Friday morning, was buried at Millican Sunday, the home of his wife and her people. The funeral was very largely attended and the sermon was preached by Rev. Massey of Navasota, who paid the young man a fine tribute. He was a most exemplary young man, having no habits of drinking, smoking or anything of that sort; upright, thorough, honest and capable and straightforward.

Mr. Phillips formerly worked at Navasota and there he carried with him the reputation he bore everywhere. He was for a time employed here as tinner for the Cole Hardware company and later went into the employ of the Waco Ice company. While so employed he was caught between cars and so badly crushed that he died in a few hours. His wife was at Millican and she went to Waco with her brothers and took the remains back to Millican. His parents reside in McLennan county and met her in Waco.

He was about 32 or 33 years of age and leaves no children. His wife was a Miss Johnson of Millican.

Secretary Baker would not express himself on this point, however, pending a full report of the occurrence and the recommendations of Major General Parker, commanding the southern department.

Mr. Baker also refused to make any statement as to the future policy of the war department toward sending colored regiments into Texas or other southern states for training.

FERGUSON STEPS DOWN AND HOBBY TAKES CHARGE

House Adopted Impeachment Charges, Set Forth in Twenty-one Articles, and Sent Them to the Senate, Which Will Open the Trial of the Governor Wednesday Morning at 10 O'clock.

(By Associated Press)
Austin, Texas, Aug. 26.—The formal official transfer of affairs of the executive department by James E. Ferguson to Lieutenant Governor Hobby was made at 10:15 o'clock this morning. The next step in the impeachment proceedings will come in the senate next Wednesday.

Austin, Texas, Aug. 26.—James E. Ferguson, governor, Friday night becomes James E. Ferguson, private citizen. Lieutenant Governor W. P. Hobby became the chief executive.

The house of representatives Friday evening presented articles of impeachment against Governor Ferguson to the senate of Texas. By this act the governor was automatically suspended.

Twenty-one articles were presented, after having been adopted by the house one by one, the last one having been adopted at 8:30 p. m.

This is the impeachment address to the senate of the state of Texas:

Mr. President: In accordance with the resolution adopted by the house of representatives of the Thirty-fifth legislature of the state of Texas on the twenty-fourth day of August, A. D. 1917, we (a committee appointed for the purpose) appear before the honorable body and in the name of the house of representatives and the people of the state of Texas do hereby impeach the Honorable James E. Ferguson, governor of the state of Texas, of high crimes and misdemeanors in office, by violation of the constitution and laws of the state, and of his oath of office.

We further inform your honorable body the house of representatives will in due time exhibit particular articles of impeachment against him and make good the same. We therefore request that the senate take order of the appearance of the said James E. Ferguson to answer to said impeachment, and to set a day and adopt rules for the hearing of the cause.

This committee has been appointed by the house as a board of managers to conduct the prosecution.

W. H. Bledsoe, chairman; E. R. Bryan, R. E. Thomson, R. F. Spencer of Wise; J. C. Murrell; W. M. Fly, W. D. Cope, B. S. McMillan; J. H. Woods, G. L. Haidusek.

Following is a brief summary of the charges:

Article 1—Used funds of Canyon City normal school to pay $5,000 note and $600 interest due First National bank of Temple by James E. Ferguson and never repaid to state.

Article 2—Received $101,000 from Governor Colquitt as insurance money on Canyon City normal, then drawing interest at 4 1/2 per cent, which was redeposited without interest by Ferguson in the Temple state banks and other banks in which he was a stockholder and in the American National bank at Austin, to which he later became indebted.

Article 3—The notes of $37,500 each made by A. F. Ferguson and J. H. Davis, Jr., to Temple State bank to James E. Ferguson to cover the latter's account and the payment of which he guaranteed.

Article 4—Testimony before investigating committee that he had paid the Temple bank $127,500 when as a matter of fact $75,000 of this was represented by the notes mentioned in article 3, for which he was responsible, and that their transfer to the Houston National Exchange bank did not relieve the Temple bank of its excessive loans to Ferguson.

Article 5—Testified on March 11 and 12 that he owed the Temple bank nothing, when he in fact owed a note of $11,243.07, on which there had been payment sufficient to leave a balance of over $8000.

Article 6—Deposited in January, 1917, in Temple State bank $60,000 of state money, at which time he was a stockholder of the bank.

Article 7—On or about May 20, 1917, Ferguson and T. H. Heard, president of the Temple State bank, deposited $250,000 of state funds in the American National bank of Austin for the credit of the Temple bank, although the state treasury was open.

Article 8—Ferguson sought to have highway commission funds deposited in his Temple bank.

Article 9—That Ferguson caused state officials of his appointment to deposit funds in banks in which he is interested, as detailed in previous articles.

Article 10—Ferguson on March 3, 1917, addressed the house and stated he was not indebted to the Temple State bank, when he owed it more than the law authorizes.

Article 11—Testified before committee of the whole that he had received from parties currency in varying amounts totaling $156,000, a transaction unusual and questionable. That he is in contempt of the house in refusing to answer and give the names of these friends.

Article 12—That Ferguson unlawfully diverted funds of the adjunct general's department on deposit in the American National bank by paying same as part of Canyon City normal building fund.

Article 13—Misapplication of state monies in purchase of groceries, feed, automobile tires, gasoline, etc.

Article 14—Violated oath of office and state laws by borrowing beyond legal limit from a state bank.

Article 15—Violated constitution in attempting to veto, with the exception of one item, the appropriation for the maintenance and support of the state university, without resubmitting the subject to the legislature until forced to do so by the impending impeachment proceedings.

Article 16—Violated constitution in attempting to discharge certain members of the university faculty when he had only authority to protest and make suggestions, and thus sought to set aside the constitution and law giving to the regents discretion in matters of this kind.

Article 17—Sought to remove regents without "good and sufficient cause," or any cause in violation of constitution and law.

Article 18—Publicly declared university faculty to be grafters, corruptionists, liars and disloyal to the government, and yet blocked an investigation sought by the faculty, which he should have encouraged if the charges are true, and if they are not true, he is guilty of criminal libel and slander against Texas and one of its institutions.

Article 19—Attempt to control regents. Judgment against Regent Wilbur P. Allen on a $5,000 bail bond in Jones county was remitted by the governor "without good reason but only to influence his action as a member of the board of regents."

Article 20—Sought to improperly influence courts of Texas. Vetted increased salary bill for supreme court after he had written them and they had ruled against him in pending case, and declined an endorsement of a Judge of the court of appeals at Beaumont because he had decided against him in a pending case.

Article 21—When the senate refused to confirm the nomination of C. W. Woodman as labor commissioner it was the duty of the governor to send in another name, but he continued him in office without confirmation.

Each article was voted on separately, the vote usually being 84 to 50 and 82 to 49, but on article 11 it was 67 to 60.

The original charges of Speaker Fuller in connection with the location of the West Texas Agricultural and Mechanical college and the loan of $500 by the governor to Mr. Fuller were entirely eliminated by the house committee. They held that the charges were not sustained by the evidence presented.

After the last article was adopted Bledsoe moved the adoption of the impeachment articles in their entirety.

Cope of Childress then presented a resolution that the chief clerk be instructed to notify the senate that the board of managers of the house is desirous of presenting articles of impeachment.

Chief Clerk Bob Barker notified the senate and the upper house immediately dispatched a messenger saying it was ready to receive the board of managers with the articles of impeachment.

The messenger from the senate reported that the senate would receive the board of managers at once and that it had set the trial of Governor Ferguson for Wednesday, August 29, at 10 a. m.

BRYAN'S CHANCE FOR ANOTHER HIGHWAY

From Thursday's Daily Eagle

Bryan has an opportunity to get the routing of another highway. The suggestion has come by mail to citizens here that the business club make an effort to secure the designation of the Henry Exall Memorial highway by way of Bremond, Franklin, Wheelock and Bryan. Several reasons are advanced for bringing this highway in this direction, one of which is that it will offer new trade territory for this city, and would be accessible to a large territory between Bryan and Wheelock, as it is pointed out that lateral roads could very easily be made to connect with this main highway. It would mean an additional state highway for Bryan, as there is already one laid out from Bremond via Calvert, Hearne to Bryan, and if the Exall highway be routed as indicated above, the additional state highway would be created.

The Henry Exall highway commission is to meet in conference in a few days in Houston or Dallas for the purpose of hearing arguments for and against it, and to this conference each county will be asked to present its views and arguments, before a definite route will be decided upon.

A conference of Bryan, Wheelock, Franklin and Bremond citizens on the matter is suggested with a view of coming to some definite plan of action.

DR. GAMBRELL TOLD BAPTISTS THE VALUE OF BEING OPTIMISTIC

From Monday's Daily Eagle

"Optimism" was the subject chosen by Dr. J. D. Gambrell for his sermon Sunday morning at the First Baptist church and in the course of his remarks he touched upon the war and the relations of the book of Revelations thereto as far as he is able to understand. The doctor was here to attend the service commemorating the ninth anniversary of the pastor, Rev. J. E. Weaver, and spoke both morning and evening, on which occasions special musical programs were given under the direction of Mrs. H. O. Boatwright. Dr. Gambrell stated that he was last here eight years ago and spoke in the old church. "The crowning glory of every minister is faith in God, faith in His word and faith in His people. This church has grown in power, in efficiency and it is sure to continue to grow, but a church does not grow except by faith."

His text was taken from the first chapter of Paul's letter to the church at Philippi, in which he read and expounded as he read the twelfth, thirteenth and fourteenth verses. He came thus to the word "fellowship," and said: "Paul makes a great deal of fellowship, speaking of my fellow-soldiers, fellow-servants, fellow-Christians, fellow-sufferers. I have said it many times and will repeat it here, there is not a man or woman in this house who would not be better dead than to destroy the fellowship of this church."

Again he quoted from the text, "I pray that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and all judgment." "Some love is foolish," said the doctor. "Some young people fall in love at first sight, and fall out at the second."

Referring to the fact that we are in war time he said he did not know that there is anything better upon which he could speak than optimism. "When you join the church you are joining Christ's army. Every church is an organized unit in the army of Christ."

Some of the epigrams used in the development of his subject were: "Every difficulty you meet in life is an opportunity; an opportunity to see what is in you."

He told of the conversions made by Paul while he was in jail, and of a German servant girl in Russia who was passed from prison to prison and everywhere made converts to Christ. Paul went up to Rome, a little old scarred Jew, and was followed by soldier after soldier, watched constantly, but he talked to them, converted them, and finally got before Nero, the tyrant, and talked to him. "Paul was alone as to men, but not as to God and Christ."

"Look back over the years of your church and see what you have done. How much more can you do in ten, twenty, fifty years. Thus far the Lord has brought you on."

"The other day I read the entire book of Revelations at one time, for the first time in my life. I do not understand it all, but I got this out of it as I read: There was a revelation of the keying of the churches up to the right standard, and then that period of tremendous struggling, that succession of great events came on us like a great field of mountains tumbling down just as we see it today, but on that rises the city of Zion."

"Then there is the value of optimism. The man who goes about sighing and with a long face belies Christ. The early Christians were happy and filled with joy. Don't be a long-faced Christian. There is no religion in that. Those naturally long-faced should shorten them up. There is a practical value about optimism. Who wants to hear croaking all the time. The church ought to be the happiest of places, and it is where Christ is."

"Optimism is happiness in religion. You have no right to be a discourager. We have a new word for that, slacker. A man can be worse than a slacker. The slacker does not go in. The discourager pulls everybody out. We hear the cry that taxes are high and money hard to get and all that. I have heard the cry of hard times all my life. A team was pulling a load up a hill, and at the rear of the wagon was a cow pulling back on the rope. The team was struggling to get to the top, when a small boy called out 'Cut the rope.' That's it; cut the cow loose. The bigger the cow the more she ought to be cut loose."

"Courage grows out of optimism. A man never talks down in his month unless he is down in his heart. One man can destroy an army of cowardice; one man can pull down a church."

Dr. Gambrell spoke last night at the First Baptist church on "The War, Its Beginning and Ending." He demonstrated that he has been a thorough student of the subject, and went back in history for centuries to find a foundation for the present trouble. He declared it as his belief that the war would be of long duration, and almost expressed the belief that it would not be the last war.

COUNTY TRUSTEES LISTENED TO MUCH FOR GOOD SCHOOLS

From Wednesday's Daily Eagle

Brazos county district and county trustees meeting was called to order a few minutes after 10 o'clock Monday, August 27, in the district court room in Bryan, by Prof. R. O. Allen, president of the county board. After a number of very interesting and instructive remarks by President Allen, a goodly number of district and county trustees listened to the following program:

"Relations of the District Trustees to the Schools." Prof. Frank Kadanka gave a very practical discussion of this subject. Among the relations enumerated by the speaker were some not contained in our school laws. He gave the following as legal relations: They are the custodians of the physical property of the district; they are the financial agents of the district; they constitute the legislature of the district; they sometimes act as the judicial body of the district to hear disputes, etc. As moral relations he mentioned that they should build the educational sentiment or standard of the district, should be prophets of the future, should be in deep sympathy with humanity and childhood.

"State Aid Under the Two-Million-Dollar Appropriation" was next discussed by Assistant State Superintendent E. G. Grafton of Austin, Texas. The speaker explained the various conditions to be met by schools desiring state aid, and emphasized the importance of meeting these requirements for the comfort and well being of the pupils. He gave them concrete examples coming under his own observation where children have suffered physical injury by attending school in houses not properly lighted. This closed the program of the forenoon session.

At 2 o'clock the house was called to order by President Allen. Mr. H. L. McKnight was the next speaker, his subject being "The Compulsory Attendance Law." Mr. McKnight is a very pleasing speaker and at the same time has a way of driving ideas home when he seeks to do so. Mr. McKnight emphasized the importance of the law and its enforcement. His speech was well received by all.

At the close of this there was a round table discussion of the various phases of the law. Many questions were asked Mr. McKnight by the trustees and all questions were promptly answered in such a way that all were greatly benefited. Many trustees told of the good effects of this law in their communities, causing large families of children to enter school who were never before seen inside a school house. Others were frank to say that they had paid no attention to the law, but that it did not need much attention, as almost everyone in their communities attended school. The date of the effectiveness of the law in this county was discussed and by unanimous vote the trustees expressed themselves as being in favor of all practical.

The last thing discussed was the advisability of Brazos county having an attendance officer to see that this law is respected and obeyed. By almost unanimous vote it was decided in favor of such an officer. However, no steps were taken to secure the appointment.

After a very interesting and instructive five minute talk by President Allen on "The County Free Library Law," the meeting was adjourned and the county board held a business meeting in the county superintendent's office. Tabor high school was given privilege to teach the eleventh grade when a second teacher shall have been installed. Bowman school, district No. 25, was given the privilege to teach the ninth grade. Edge school, district No. 14, was raised to a high school of the second class, with permission to teach through the tenth grade. The county apportionment was made.

Districts desiring state aid will now find the necessary blanks with the county superintendent, who will give them to trustees upon application.

LEMONS MAKE SKIN
WHITE, SOFT, CLEAR
Make This Beauty Lotion for a Few Cents and See for Yourself

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to whiten the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way. Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quarter pint of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it should help to bleach, clear, smoothen and beautify the skin.

Any druggist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons.—Adv.

14 DEAD, 22 WOUNDED, IN RACE RIOTS AT HOUSTON Reign of Terror in Houston but Quiet is Restored Under Martial Law

Ringleader of the Rioting Negro Troops Was Shot and Killed—Twenty-two Troops in Jail False Rumor of Killing of Negro Soldier Started the Trouble at 6 O'clock—Ammunition Camp Stormed.

(Special to the Daily Eagle)

Houston, Texas, August 24.—As a result of the riot of negro troops of the Twenty-fourth infantry last night, sixteen people are dead this afternoon and twenty-two wounded. Of those dead four are policemen and of the wounded two are policemen. The ringleader of the riot, Sergeant Henry of the Twenty-fourth infantry, was shot and killed.

Martial law was declared last night and General Hulen placed in charge. Special deputies were appointed by the sheriff and the superintendent of police this morning.

Hardware stores, saloons and negro stores have been ordered closed. Twenty-two negro troopers are in the county jail and many reported back to camp this morning. Between twenty-five and thirty are missing and are supposed to have escaped in automobiles and are hiding in the country.

The situation is perfectly under control. The immediate start of the trouble was in the negro camp when it was reported that one of their number had been shot in the afternoon by the city police. This was not true, he having been only arrested. Ammunition was then stolen but the theft was discovered and the ammunition recovered.

At 6 p. m. company "K," of the Twenty-fourth infantry, stormed the ammunition camp and secured ammunition and from that time forward kept up a continual fire until 12:30 this morning. They succeeded in terrorizing that section and killed everybody they could see. After shooting their victims they mutilated them with the bayonets and sabers. Capt. Mattes, of the Illinois National guard, was among those slain, and his body was mutilated almost beyond recognition.

Major Snow, commanding the negroes, who had been sent here to guard the cantonment while it was being built, says he was informed that the trouble started as a result of the action of a policeman yesterday who beat a negro soldier with a pistol when he remonstrated with the policeman for slapping a negro woman while arresting her.

Steeple Hollow, Aug. 30.—The rain of Tuesday afternoon seems to have been a general one in this part of the county, for which everybody is thankful. We had about decided that it couldn't rain here any more. Doubtless, J. W. Mathis will have some clean peanuts this year, as he had them plowed up when the rain came.

The prize for the most comely dressed girl was won by Miss Ima Cook and proved to be a toy monkey. The prize for the boy's was a toy pistol. It was awarded to Charles Hall.

Miss Icy Goen of Harvey has been the guest of her cousin, Miss Ida Martin, for a few days.

Miss Martha Suler of Kurten has been visiting in the home of R. L. Buchanan.

J. C. Thomson is leaving this week for Camp Bowie, where he will have a position on the Y. M. C. A. staff. He has been pastor of the Methodist church here for almost four years and has made a friend of everyone; however we are glad to see him go, as he will have opportunities for greater work and we feel sure that he will make good.

JUDGE KYSER NOW ENDORSES TANLAC

WELL KNOWN PUBLIC MAN OF AUSTIN SAYS "IT PUT ME IN BETTER SHAPE THAN I'VE BEEN FOR YEARS."

One of the distinguishing features of the introduction and phenomenal popularity of Tanlac in Texas and throughout the south, is the large number of prominent men who have come forward and given the medicine their unqualified endorsements because of the benefits they have derived from its use.

Judge G. W. Kyser, 1204 West Ninth street, Austin, Texas, in a recent interview, made the following statement:

"Tanalac is rapidly making me over into a new man and I will always speak a good word for it when I have the opportunity."

Judge Kyser served in the Civil war with the Thirty-second Texas cavalry under Colonel Woods, and the Confederate veteran needs no introduction to the southern born man or woman. The judge occupied the bench in Caldwell county for twenty years and resigned this office to accept the appointment as commissioner of pensions under Governor Colquitt. After eighteen months in this high office, he was compelled, on account of failing health, to retire from active life. He is not only one of Austin's most highly respected citizens, but is prominently known throughout the state.

"I have suffered from constipation for years," continued Judge Kyser. "I had rheumatic pains all over my body, was restless and couldn't sleep at all well. I was stupid and tired, my mind seemed to be sluggish, and at times I couldn't think. I had no energy and suffered frequently from headaches. And, on top of my other troubles, about a month ago, a few days before I began taking Tanlac. I took a severe cold which left me with a pain in my chest and a dreadful cough—I couldn't rest at night for coughing—and to be frank about it, I was just about played out."

"But I'm feeling like a different man now, thanks to Tanlac. I saw it advertised and began taking it and two bottles have put me in better shape than I have been in months, and that is a fact, it's the best medicine I ever took. I eat hearty and sleep well, my rheumatic pains and cough are all gone and I feel more active and energetic than I have in a long time. In fact, I'm feeling fine now and nothing has helped me but Tanlac. I recommend it to my friends as the best medicine I have ever found to build up a weak, run-down system and to restore lost health and vigor."

Tanalac is sold in Bryan by N. A. Stewart, in Edge by Moore & Payne and in Wellborn by J. B. Royder.—Adv.

Article 7—On or about May 20, 1917, Ferguson and T. H. Heard, president of the Temple State bank, deposited $250,000 of state funds in the American National bank of Austin for the credit of the Temple bank, although the state treasury was open.

Article 8—Ferguson sought to have highway commission funds deposited in his Temple bank.

Article 9—That Ferguson caused state officials of his appointment to deposit funds in banks in which he is interested, as detailed in previous articles.

Article 10—Ferguson on March 3, 1917, addressed the house and stated he was not indebted to the Temple State bank, when he owed it more than the law authorizes.

The church ought to be the happiest of places, and it is where Christ is."

"Optimism is happiness in religion. You have no right to be a discourager. We have a new word for that, slacker. A man can be worse than a slacker. The slacker does not go in. The discourager pulls everybody out. We hear the cry that taxes are high and money hard to get and all that. I have heard the cry of hard times all my life. A team was pulling a load up a hill, and at the rear of the wagon was a cow pulling back on the rope. The team was struggling to get to the top, when a small boy called out 'Cut the rope.' That's it; cut the cow loose. The bigger the cow the more she ought to be cut loose."

"Courage grows out of optimism. A man never talks down in his mouth unless he is down in his heart. One man can destroy an army of cowards; one man can pull down a church."

Dr. Gambrell spoke last night at the First Baptist church on "The War, Its Beginning and Ending." He demonstrated that he has been a thorough student of the subject, and went back in history for centuries to find a foundation for the present trouble. He declared it as his belief that the war would be of long duration, and almost expressed the belief that it would not be the last war.

COUNTY TRUSTEES LISTENED TO MUCH FOR GOOD SCHOOLS

From Wednesday's Daily Eagle

Brazos county district and county trustees meeting was called to order a few minutes after 10 o'clock Monday, August 27, in the district court room in Bryan, by Prof. R. O. Allen, president of the county board. After a number of very interesting and instructive remarks by President Allen, a goodly number of district and county trustees listened to the following program:

"Relations of the District Trustees to the Schools." Prof. Frank Kadanka gave a very practical discussion of this subject. Among the relations enumerated by the speaker were some not contained in our school laws. He gave the following as legal relations: They are the custodians of the physical property of the district; they are the financial agents of the district; they constitute the legislature of the district; they sometimes act as the judicial body of the district to hear disputes, etc. As moral relations he mentioned that they should build the educational sentiment or standard of the district, should be prophets of the future, should be in deep sympathy with humanity and childhood.

"State Aid Under the Two-Million-Dollar Appropriation" was next discussed by Assistant State Superintendent E. G. Grafton of Austin, Texas. The speaker explained the various conditions to be met by schools desiring state aid, and emphasized the importance of meeting these requirements for the comfort and well being of the pupils. He gave them concrete examples coming under his own observation where children have suffered physical injury by attending school in houses not properly lighted. This closed the program of the forenoon session.

At 2 o'clock the house was called to order by President Allen. Mr. H. L. McKnight was the next speaker, his subject being "The Compulsory Attendance Law." Mr. McKnight is a very pleasing speaker and at the same time has a way of driving ideas home when he seeks to do so. Mr. McKnight emphasized the importance of the law and its enforcement. His speech was well received by all.

At the close of this there was a round table discussion of the various phases of the law. Many questions were asked Mr. McKnight by the trustees and all questions were promptly answered in such a way that all were greatly benefited. Many trustees told of the good effects of this law in their communities, causing large families of children to enter school who were never before seen inside a school house. Others were frank to say that they had paid no attention to the law, but that it did not need much attention, as almost everyone in their communities attended school. The date of the effectiveness of the law in this county was discussed and by unanimous vote the trustees expressed themselves as being in favor of the first Monday in October where at all practical.

The last thing discussed was the advisability of Brazos county having an attendance officer to see that this law is respected and obeyed. By almost unanimous vote it was decided in favor of such an officer. However, no steps were taken to secure the appointment.

After a very interesting and instructive five minute talk by President Allen on "The County Free Library Law," the meeting was adjourned and the county board held a business meeting in the county superintendent's office. Tabor high school was given privilege to teach the eleventh grade when a second teacher shall have been installed. Bowman school, district No. 25, was given the privilege to teach the ninth grade. Edge school, district No. 14, was raised to a high school of the second class, with permission to teach through the tenth grade. The county apportionment was made. Districts desiring state aid will now find the necessary blanks with the county superintendent, who will give them to trustees upon application.

LEMONS MAKE SKIN WHITE, SOFT, CLEAR Make This Beauty Lotion for a Few Cents and See for Yourself

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to whiten the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way. Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quarter pint of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it should help to bleach, clear, smoothen and beautify the skin.

Any drugist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons.—Adv.

14 DEAD, 22 WOUNDED, IN RACE RIOTS AT HOUSTON

Reign of Terror in Houston but Quiet is Restored Under Martial Law

Ringleader of the Rioting Negro Troops Was Shot and Killed—Twenty-two Troopers in Jail False Rumor of Killing of Negro Soldier Started the Trouble at 6 O'clock—Ammunition Camp Stormed.

(Special to the Daily Eagle)

Houston, Texas, August 24.—As a result of the riot of negro troops of the Twenty-fourth infantry last night, sixteen people are dead this afternoon and twenty-two wounded. Of those dead four are policemen and of the wounded two are policemen.

The ringleader of the riot, Sergeant Henry of the Twenty-fourth infantry, was shot and killed.

Martial law was declared last night and General Hulen placed in charge. Special deputies were appointed by the sheriff and the superintendent of police this morning.

Hardware stores, saloons and negro stores have been ordered closed.

Twenty-two negro troopers are in the county jail and many reported back to camp this morning. Between twenty-five and thirty are missing and are supposed to have escaped in automobiles and are hiding in the country.

The situation is perfectly under control.

The immediate start of the trouble was in the negro camp when it was reported that one of their number had been shot in the afternoon by the city police. This was not true, he having been only arrested. Ammunition was then stolen but the theft was discovered and the ammunition recovered.

At 6 p. m. company "K," of the Twenty-fourth infantry, stormed the ammunition camp and secured ammunition and from that time forward kept up a continual fire until 12:30 this morning. They succeeded in terrorizing that section and killed everybody they could see. After shooting their victims they mutilated them with the bayonets and sabers. Capt. Mattes, of the Illinois National guard, was among those slain, and his body was mutilated almost beyond recognition.

Major Snow, commanding the negroes, who had been sent here to guard the cantonment while it was being built, says he was informed that the trouble started as a result of the action of a policeman yesterday who beat a negro soldier with a pistol when he remonstrated with the policeman for slapping a negro woman while arresting her.

Steeple Hollow

Steeple Hollow, Aug. 30.—The rain of Tuesday afternoon seems to have been a general one in this part of the county, for which everybody is thankful. We had about decided that it couldn't rain here any more. Doubtless, J. W. Mathis will have some clean peanuts this year, as he had them plowed up when the rain came.

Mr. and Mrs. Leutyler gave a tacky party Monday night in honor of visiting girls in the community and the boys who leave this week for different divisions of the army. The prize for the most comically dressed girl was won by Miss Ima Cook and proved to be a toy monkey. The prize for the boy's was a toy pistol. It was awarded to Charles Hall.

Miss Icy Goen of Harvey has been the guest of her cousin, Miss Ida Martin, for a few days.

Miss Martha Suler of Kurten has been visiting in the home of R. L. Buchanan.

J. C. Thomson is leaving this week for Camp Bowie, where he will have a position on the Y. M. C. A. staff. He has been pastor of the Methodist church here for almost four years and has made a friend of everyone; however we are glad to see him go, as he will have opportunities for greater work and we feel sure that he will make good.

JUDGE KYSER NOW ENDORSES TANLAC

WELL KNOWN PUBLIC MAN OF AUSTIN SAYS "IT PUT ME IN BETTER SHAPE THAN I'VE BEEN FOR YEARS."

One of the distinguishing features of the introduction and phenomenal popularity of Tanlac in Texas and throughout the south, is the large number of prominent men who have come forward and given the medicine their unqualified endorsements because of the benefits they have derived from its use.

Judge G. W. Kyser, 1204 West Ninth street, Austin, Texas, in a recent interview, made the following statement:

"Tanlac is rapidly making me over into a new man and I will always speak a good word for it when I have the opportunity."

Judge Kyser served in the Civil war with the Thirty-second Texas cavalry under Colonel Woods, and the Confederate veteran needs no introduction to the southern born man or woman. The judge occupied the bench in Caldwell county for twenty years and resigned this office to accept the appointment as commissioner of pensions under Governor Colquitt. After eighteen months in this high office, he was compelled, on account of failing health, to retire from active life. He is not only one of Austin's most highly respected citizens, but is prominently known throughout the state.

"I have suffered from constipation for years," continued Judge Kyser. "I had rheumatic pains all over my body, was restless and couldn't sleep at all well. I was stupid and tired, my mind seemed to be sluggish, and at times I couldn't think. I had no energy and suffered frequently from headaches. And, on top of my other troubles, about a month ago, a few days before I began taking Tanlac, I took a severe cold which left me with a pain in my chest and a dreadful cough—I couldn't rest at night for coughing—and to be frank about it, I was just about played out."

"But I'm feeling like a different man now, thanks to Tanlac. I saw it advertised and began taking it and two bottles have put me in better shape than I have been in months, and that is a fact, it's the best medicine I ever took. I eat hearty and sleep well, my rheumatic pains and cough are all gone and I feel more active and energetic than I have in a long time. In fact, I'm feeling fine now and nothing has helped me but Tanlac. I recommend it to my friends as the best medicine I have ever found to build up a weak, run-down system and to restore lost health and vigor."

Tanlac is sold in Bryan by N. A. Stewart, in Edge by Moore & Payne and in Wellborn by J. B. Royder.—Adv.

The Evening Line-Up

Both children and grown-ups, with coughs and colds, are all the better for a dose of Foley's Honey and Tar at bed time. It wards off croup, stops tickling throat, and hacking cough, and makes an otherwise feverish, sleepless night of coughing and distress, a quiet and restful one.

BROWNVILLE, TEXAS. Mr. Chas. Baker, writes: "My wife would not think of using any other cough medicine, as Foley's Honey and Tar is certain to bring quick relief. It is especially effective in cases of bad coughs, and we give it to our children and recommend it always as a safe remedy, for it contains no opiates." For sale by M. H. James.
